

iPad Lending Agreement

As a condition of borrowing an Apple iPad (iPad) from the University Libraries at Carnegie Mellon University, you must agree to the following terms and conditions.

- The iPad must be returned within 7 days of checkout. (2 hours for the in-library iPad).
- The iPad must be returned directly to a library employee at the same circulation desk you checked it out from. Do not use the drop box.
- You will be charged $10/day late fee for every day the iPad is overdue (or $2/hour late fee for every hour the in-library only iPad is overdue). No renewals.
- You assume financial responsibility for the iPad until it is returned. You are responsible for any intentional or unintentional damage to the iPad by yourself or another person.
- You will be charged a $500 replacement fee if the iPad is lost, stolen, or damaged during the lending period.
- You will be charged a $30 replacement fee for each lost or damaged power cord, power adapter, carrying case, or other peripherals provided with the iPad.
- When using the iPad you agree to comply with the University's Computing Policy. (<http://www.cmu.edu/policies/documents/Computing.htm>)
- The iPad contains standard preloaded files and applications ("apps"). Any additional apps or media purchased by you during the lending period must be done with your own funds. Carnegie Mellon University is not responsible for any of your purchases.
- You understand that any apps, media, data, and/or documents that you download, purchase, create, or otherwise save to the iPad during the lending period will be permanently erased and replaced with standard preloaded files and apps when the iPad is returned to the library.

By signing below, I hereby acknowledge that I have read, understand and agree to the above terms and conditions.
