

Browsing for eBooks using Advanced search

(Note: An 'Everything' search will yield more eBook results than this method)

1. Go to the Libraries homepage, www.library.cmu.edu
2. Select the Books & More tab
3. Click on Advanced

The screenshot shows the Carnegie Mellon University Libraries homepage. At the top right, there are links for 'Hours', 'Ask Us', and 'My Account'. The main navigation bar includes 'Search & Find', 'Using the Libraries', 'Research Support', 'Data & Publishing', 'Get Help', and 'About Us'. Below this, there are tabs for 'Everything', 'Articles & More', 'Books & More' (highlighted with a red circle and the number 2), and 'Site Search'. A search bar is present with a 'Search' button and an 'Advanced' button (highlighted with a red circle and the number 3). Below the search bar, there are links for 'Research Databases', 'eJournals', 'Unique @ CMU', 'eBooks', 'Google Scholar', 'WorldCat', and 'Other Libraries'. The main content area features three featured items: 'GCC Dissertation Boot Camp', 'Bloomberg Terminals', and 'Trial: Mercantile Newspapers'. On the right side, there is a 'Hours' section with links for 'Hunt', 'Sorrells', and 'Mellon', each with an 'open' status. Below that is a 'Quick links' section with links for 'Ask Us', 'Finding course reserves', 'Requesting items (ILL)', 'Places to study', and 'Research guides'. At the bottom, there are three columns: 'CONTACT US' with address and phone information, 'GETTING STARTED' with links for 'Undergraduate students', 'Graduate students', 'Post-docs & visiting researchers', 'Staff', 'Faculty', 'Alumni', and 'Visitors', and 'FOLLOW US' with links for 'Facebook', 'Twitter', and 'YouTube'. The Carnegie Mellon University logo is in the bottom right corner.

4. If you have a subject in mind, enter your terms in the Search for box. If you want to browse, skip this step and leave the Search for fields blank

5. Select E-TEXT from the Material type facet menu
6. Click Search. This will display only search results available as an eBook
